Union Leader Given 24 Hours by Probers

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets probers indicated today they have fixed a 24-hour deadline for Dave Beck, Teamsters Union president, to comply with a demand for his 1949-56 personal financial records.

With the hearings in recess until Tuesday, committee sources said they intend to subpoena Beck's records unless the Teamsters chief quickly gives them to the committee voluntarily. A similar request for Beck's records went out nearly a month ago.

There have been allegations that union funds were used to pay some of Beck's personal expenses.

In Seattle, Beck said yesterday he hadn't received the committee's new request yet, adding: "I am not taking a position on this until I see what the committee wants and can consult with my attorneys."

Beck said that if his lawyers want him to turn over the records I will do so in a minute. He said that depends on whether my attorneys believe my rights are being infringed upon.

The special committee was set up to probe alleged racketeering in both labor and business. So far its hearings have dealt with an alleged plot by West Coast Teamsters officials to take over rackets in Portland, Ore.

Late in yesterday's hearing the committee produced several checks amounting to more than $14,000 and said the Teamsters money went to Nathan W. Sherferman, Chicago labor relations consultant to employers. The committee said he once served in that capacity for Sears, Roebuck & Co.

The checks were signed in 1951 and 1952 by Beck and by Frank Brewster, chairman of the 11-state Western Conference of Teamsters.

Rebel Leaders in Indonesia in Conference

JAKARTA (AP)—Rebel military leaders from throughout Indonesia met today in Jakarta in the back-slapping, handshaking atmosphere of a college reunion.

President Sukarno in a tense broadcast last night said the revolt across the widespread island republican brought the nation to the point of life and death.

Today the leaders of that revolt talked and joked at great length in the capital on their first meeting since they defied Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo.

The Premier and his Cabinet quit yesterday finally bowing to demands that he began in December and spread throughout the island republic. The rebels pledge their allegiance to Sukarno—the hero of Indonesia's revolution against the Dutch—but demanded a new government which would let them keep most of the proceeds from their exports to develop their own islands.

The crisis was worsened by Sukarno's plan to set up an all-powerful advisory council headed by himself and including the Communists, leaders in the outlying islands and the powerful army chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Andual Hars Nasution, were unusually opposed to government including the Reds.

Faced with the disintegration of the republic he launched in 1945, Sukarno capitulated. He finally forced Sastroamidjojo's resignation—which most parties in the government had demanded since January—and officially turned the local governments over to the military leaders who had rebelled since December. Then he summoned the local military chiefs to Jakarta to make peace.

On hand for the meeting were Lt. Col. Ventze Sumual of east Indonesia, Lt. Col. Barlian of south Sumatra and Lt. Col. Hasan Basri of Borneo, all rebel leaders in their sectors of the republic. Lt.
Col. Achmad Husein, leader of the central Sumatra revolt, was reported to ill to attend.

BEACHBALL, ANYONE?—Resembling a monster beachball, the world's largest air-supported radar dome dwarfs the two men and a truck at its base. The dome, shown at Baltimore, Md., is taller than a three-story building and measures 61 feet in diameter. Easily transportable, it is made of panels tied together with slide fasteners. Supported entirely by low air pressure, it can withstand 100-mile-an-hour winds.

Fudbright to Probe Middle East Mistakes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today a special Senate subcommittee will meet Monday to lay the groundwork for an inquiry into what the called foreign policy mistakes in the Middle East.

Fulbright is chairman of a six-member group authorized by the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees to set the state for a study covering U.S. policies in the Middle East extending back to January, 1946.

Deputy Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy, Assistant Secretary William Rountree and Bernard Noble, chief of the department's Historical Division, were called to Monday's closed door session.

They are to present a progress report on work now under way to supply the committee's request for a chronological, documented report on events contributing significantly to the crisis that led to the Israeli-Arab-French invasion of Egypt and the Suez canal zone.

At Republican insistence, the inquiry was broadened to cover events which took place during the Democratic administration of President Truman.

Fulbright has attributed strained relations with the British and French to mistakes in judgment by Secretary of State Dulles and the Eisenhower administration.

Judgment Against Father Awarded

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A Circuit Court jury awarded Marian Wurth $7,500 damages against her father for spinal injuries suffered four years ago when she was 19.

It was believed to be the first time in Missouri that damages were awarded a minor against a member of his immediate family. The verdict was returned yesterday.

John S. Wurth, a brewery foreman, was driving his daughter to work when the car skidded on ice and she was thrown out. Miss Wurth, a telephone operator, had sued for $25,000.

One Hurt in Train, Truck Accident

ATKINS, (AP)—A Missouri Pacific train and an automobile collided with terrific impact at a downtown crossing here yesterday, critically injuring James Howard, 24, of Atkins.

Howard was reported improved but still critical at a Russellville hospital today.

Deputy Sheriff Vernon Buck Ferguson said Howard was thrown from the car, which was dragged 1,170 feet by the train.
The car was demolished.

Honking Horn Failed to Halt a Train

LOS ANGELES (AP)—While George John Ward honked and honked his horn, hoping to get the motorist's attention, he was covered by bees. She and a neighbor who was visiting her became prisoners in the home.

With the windows black with bees, Mrs. Florentino called police. By the time the police became expert had arrived the bees had swarmed to a berry bush and it wasn't too much trouble supplying them.

Arkadelphia Plant Contract Awarded

ARKADELPHIA — An $845,- 000 construction contract for the Tocum Corp. plant here has been awarded to the Herman Carty Construction Co. of Little Rock.

The Arkadelphia Industrial Development Corp., said yesterday the building is expected to be ready this fall. The company will employ about 300 persons.

Youths Shoot to Protect Their Dogs

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—The City Commission yesterday ordered all except the head dog catcher here to disarm after a shooting incident involving two 14-year-old youths who said a dog-catcher tried to kill their pet.

Mayor George Clough, following a storm of protests from citizens rallying to the youths defense, also suggested that dog catchers reconsider their methods of catching canines.

The key figure in the controversy, Blackie, a small mongrel dog, was confined in the city pound for a 14-day observation period.

But dog lovers have pledged the $17 required for his release when the observation period is over.

Blackie's masters, Robert Garcia and Charles Layman, armed with a .22 rifle, held a dozen policemen and two armed dog catchers at bay for more than an hour Wednesday.

They said the clash followed an attempt by dog catcher Otis OCallahan to shoot their pet.

OCallahan said the dog tried to bite him when he was attempting to check it for tags and he fired at it only to frighten it. After a brief tussle, the boys grabbed the dog and ran. The shooting incident occurred later, after neighbors called police and they heard the boys threatening the dog catchers.

The boys were jailed and charged with assault to murder and discharging firearms inside the city limits. They were released yesterday after County Probation Officer George Cusick admonished them to go home and get back in school and let those rifles alone.

Newspapers were flooded with calls after the incident and Mayor Clough called the city commission into special session to discuss the case. The order disarming all but the head dogcatcher was approved then. Dog catchers had been deputized as special policemen and permitted to carry arms.

Bees Make Prisoners of Pair in Home

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A concussion apparently due to a jet military plane going through the sound barrier, caused the home of Mrs. Theresa Florentino to be covered by bees. She and a neighbor who was visiting her became
prisoners in the home.

With the windows black with
bees, Mrs. Florentino called police. By the time the police became expert had arrived the bees
had swarmed to a berry bush and
it wasn't too much trouble supplying them.

The bee specialist, William J.
Fox, said that the bees came from a hive in the hills and that the sound from the plane apparently jarred the bees.

When she took off her ad-

Poison Fatal to 2-Year-Old Boy

MEMPHIS (AP)—Eating rat poison he found while playing proved fatal for a 2-year-old Arkansas Negro boy.

Robert Lee Milton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Milton of Hughes, died at a hospital here yesterday. His 3-year-old brother, Denis, who also ate some of the poison, was in fair condition.

Slayer Denied a Stay of Execution

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UP)— Gov. Goodwin J. Knight today accused an impassioned television appeal by the attorney for Burton W.
Abbott and granted a one hour's stay of execution for the convicted kidnap-slayer of a Berkeley school girl.

The 28-year-old college student was scheduled to enter the San Quentin gas chamber at 10 a.m.
EST, but Knight ordered his execution delayed until 11 a.m. So Attorney George T. Davis could appear to Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson of the State Supreme Court.

Davis went on the air by telephone from the federal court house here this morning minutes after Federal Circuit Judge Walter L.
Pope denied a stay of execution—the fourth such denial in three days.

He pleaded with Knight, who was aboard the aircraft carrier Hancock tied up at Alameda, to allow him 30 minutes in a plea for clemency.

Almost immediately the governor telephoned Davis and after more discussion told the attorney he would grant the brief stay to the kidnap-slayer of pretty 14-year-old Stephanie Bryan.

Davis then went to the State Supreme Court and asked that the stay be extended until 4 p.m. So he and his colleague Leo Sullivan could ask Chief Justice Gibson for a writ of habeas corpus.

In previous appeals to the federal courts, Davis had argued that alleged self-accusatory statements Abbott made to make at the time of his arrest were unconstitutional.
Federal Judge Pope ruled today that this issue must first be decided upon by state courts before appealing to federal courts.

"Not only does the petition fail to disclose denial of any right under the constitutional of the United States, but when Abbott's counsel went into the district court they were in no position to present their any question arising under the federal constitution. For no such question whatever had ever been presented in the state courts."

Davis' last-ditch appeal to the governor over the nationwide NBC television show "Today" came as Abbott quietly waited out his fate in the death cell across the hall from the apple-green death chamber.

Warden Harley O. Teets said the 28-year-old ex-University of California accounting student "didn't seem a tall depressed" when he talked to him last night.

"He was much more animated than he has ever been before," Teets said. "He talked a lot about various plays, movies and books."

By GLENN STACKHOUSE
SAN QUENTIN (UP)—Circuit Judge Walter L. Pope today denied a stay of execution for kidnap-murderer Burton W. Abbott whose execution in the San Quentin prison gas chamber is scheduled for 10 a.m. P.S.T.

The judge arrived at the federal courthouse in San Francisco at 8:50 a.m. and was met by Chief Clerk Paul O'Brien of the federal court of appeals on the first floor.

O'Brien released the judge's decision about 15 minutes later.
The decision stated that the "accusatory statements" on which Attorney George T. Davis based his petition for a writ of habeas corpus did not "measure up to a denial of due process" under the constitution.

to disclose denial of any right under the constitution of the United States," Pope wrote, "but when Abbott's counsel went into the district court they were in no position to present their any question arising under the federal constitution."

"For no such question whatever had ever been presented in the state courts,"

Pope said that after reading all of Abbott's briefs filed in the state supreme court, he came to the conclusion that "in none of them is there any specification of a denial of any constitutional right."

Pope's decision apparently ruled out any further hope of a stay of execution for the 28-year-old University of California student who was convicted of the 1955 slaying of 16-year-old Stephanie Bryan of Berkeley.

2 Committees to Air Middle East Policies

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two special Senate committees are preparing to launch inquiries next week into American Middle East policies and the Eisenhower administration's foreign aid program.

Secretary of State Dulles is scheduled to appear Monday at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He will brief members on the recent Southeast Asia Treaty SEATO conference and the forthcoming Anglo-American talks in Bermuda.

But there was more congressional interest in the appearance Monday of C. D. Jackson, former special assistant to President Eisenhower, before a special subcommittee headed by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.).

Jackson has agreed to elaborate on a speech he made in Toronto several days ago concerning the administration's decision to withdraw its offer to help Egypt build the Aswan Dam. Announcement of this decision last summer was followed immediately by Egyptian seizure of the Suez Canal.

The Fulbright subcommittee, made up of six members drawn from the Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees, will chart a study by the two parent committees of U. S. Middle East policies dating back to January 1946.

Wisdom of Right to Work Law Doubted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell says he doubts the "wisdom of state right to work" laws. But he says he won't ask Congress to deny the states the power to enact them.

Mitchell speaking yesterday at Labor relations conference sponsored by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said the Eisenhower administration will not request repeal of a section of the Taft-Hartley Act that authorizes the states to pass right to work laws.

Seventeen states already have such laws, which ban compulsory union membership. Indiana will become the 18th when a measure passed by its Legislature becomes law sometime late this summer or early fall.

Mitchell told his businessmen-delegates he never quarreled with the right of the states to enact such laws, but that what he has done to question the wisdom of the states in so doing.

"The labor secretary said administration proposals for amending the Taft-Hartley law will be sent to Capitol Hill in the next few weeks."

Mitchell urged congressional approval of legislation to require full reporting of employee welfare and pension funds.

Without passage of this legislation, he said, I am hopeful that some of the opportunity for racketeering—and some of the opportunities for racketeers—will disappear."

Accidental Atomic Blast Revealed

LOS ALAMOS, N. M. (AP)—The AEC said today the core of a planned atomic power reactor exploded during testing on Feb. 12.
No one was injured, but the power unit was destroyed.

The reactor core in essence a stripped down model of a power reactor was, because of its "naked" nature, whimsically dubbed "The Godiva."

It consisted of a sphere of uranium 235 about 6 inches in diameter suspended on a tripod.
The AEC announcement said no damage was done to the building "and radiation contamination has been removed by standard cleaning methods."

Arkansan Killed in Road Wreck

NEWPORT (AP)—An automobile and a trailer truck collided south of here early today, killing 23-year-old Charlie Lee Foster of Pogson Grange.

The driver of the truck, Deryl Prazler of Lafford, Tex., was unhurt.

State Trooper Bill Manes said that Foster was returning to his home in Pogson Grange, 13 miles south of here, from a restaurant he operated in Bald Knob. Manes said that Foster apparently was attempting to make a left turn opposite direction, and Foster's car collided.

The accident occurred about 1 p.m.

Publisher to Circulate Petition for a Vote on the Sales Tax Increase

House Listens But Votes Same Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House after listening to denunciations of high taxes and big government spending—has voted for a year's extension of present corporation and excise tax rates.

House passage of the bill yesterday sent it to the Senate, where action is expected before April 1.

On that date, corporation and excise sales tax rates are scheduled to drop automatically. This would cut Treasury revenues about three billion dollars and endanger prospects for a budget surplus.

The bill passed by the House on a voice vote would extend until April 1, 1958, the present 52 per cent levy on corporation profits. It also would continue for the same span the present excise rates on liquor, cigarettes, passenger automobiles and auto parts and accessories.

Without the new legislation, the corporation tax rate would fall to 47 per cent and excise levels would drop to those in effect before the Korean War.

Before voting, the House heard Rep. Colmer (D-Miss) mount an attack on government spending and taxing. Colmer appealed for savings in spending for defense and foreign aid. And he opposed big outlays for federal aid to education.

Rep. Curtis (R-Mo) said, "It is important to have a tax rate so high that there is less tax taking and in my opinion that is exactly what is happening."

Probers Ask Beck to Give Up Records

By HERBERT FOSTER AND John A. Goldsmith

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Rackets committee demanded that Teamster President Dave Beck tell it today when he would surrender his personal financial records if he does not give them —up voluntarily.

This development came after Frank W. Brewster, chief of the Teamsters' Western conference, branded as "absolutely fantastic and completely untrue" charges linking him and the union with West Coast hoodlums.

Committee Chairman John L.
McClellan (D-Ark.) said he had heard nothing directly from Beck since the portly union president returned from Europe Sunday and announced his willingness to testify.

He said he telegraphed Beck, now in Seattle, a now request for all of his personal financial books and records from 1940 through 1955 which pertain to loans or advances from the union or to "any financial transactions that you have or individuals having contracts or had with companies, corporations financial dealings" with the union.

"Please advise today by return wire when these records will be forthcoming," McClellan's telegram concluded.

The chairman announced that the committee wants to learn if the "spirit of cooperation" Beck has promised is going to be kept.
"If they are not available on request," McClellan said, "the chairman will conclude it is necessary to issue the proper processes" — in other words, a subpoena.

The committee, winding up three weeks of sensational hearings on alleged links between Teamsters and hoodlums in Portland, Ore., learned from Brewster that some records of his 11-state Western Conference (division) of the union has been destroyed.

Brewster said their destruction was an "accident and occurred during a clean-up ordered by the fire department in the basement of the Teamsters' building. It was the second instance of missing Teamster records to come to the committee's attention this week.

Soil Bank Pay to Reach $9.5 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas farmers have agreed to receive 174,290 acres from cotton production and can expect a total of $9,540,510 in payments under the soil bank plan, the Agriculture Department announced yesterday.

Man Observes 100th Birthday

MERCED, Calif. (AP)—George Trimble, who claims to have sat on Abraham Lincoln's knee and later to have known Wild Bill Hickok in the Black Hills of South Dakota, observed his 100th birthday yesterday.

He expressed hope "the next 100 years are as full as the first."
Trimble said he sat on the Great Emancipator's knee after one of the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates.

Not long ago, Trimble was embroiled with a youngster of 72
work when the car skidded on ice of 67. Trimble indignantly denied any interest in her, exclaiming:
"I won't have anything to do with them unless they're much younger than that."

Union Dispute of Officials Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee takes a look today at charges exchanged by top officials of the Bankery and Confectionery Workers Union.

The dispute between Union President James G. Cross and Vice President George Stuart on one hand and Secretary-Treasurer Curtis R. Sims on the other already has resulted in suspension of Sims.

Sims touched off the battle with an unsuccessful attempt to have Cross and Stuart fired on grounds of "misconduct and misuse of funds. Instead, the union executive board cleared Cross and Stuart and suspended Sims on undisclosed charges. The board ordered a trial for Sims in Miami Beach March 27.

The Senate's Special Rackets Investigating Committee also has started an inquiry into the conflict. It has issued subpoenas for the three officers and for union records.

Sims appealed to AFL-CIO President George Meany for consideration of the case by the organization's five-member Ethical Practices Committee.

The group arranged to meet in private and was expected to decide whether to launch a full-scale investigation. It doesn't have the power to remove any union officials but it can recommend to the AFL-CIO Executive Council that a union be disaffiliated.

Ex-Porker Football Player Succumbs

WEBB CITY, Mo. (AP)—Joe F.
Moore, principal of the Webb City High School and former University of Arkansas football star, died at a hospital in Fayetteville, Ark., yesterday.

Noore, 50, suffered from a heart ailment.

After receiving his master's degree in education from Arkansas, Moore taught in several east Arkansas public schools. He was principal of the Rogers, Ark., High School before coming to Webb City.

Survivors include his widow, a son, Joe Jr., and a daughter, Jane, all of Webb City.
Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Blytheville Gets Airport Money

BLYTHEVILLE (AP)—The City Council here has released $50,000 for construction of a municipal airport and plans to obtain an equal amount in federal matching funds. Blytheville has been without a municipal airport since the Air Force Base was reactivated.

Benny Congratulates American Legion Post

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pen-sylvania state American Legion, celebrating its 39th birthday today, has received a letter of congratulation from Hollywood.

It reads: "Imagine your organization was formed when I was born and now we are celebrating our 39th birthday together. So, my sincere congratulations on all your good work and hopes hoping your branch of the American Legion continues its excellent record for another 39 years."

The letter was from comedian Jack Benny, who has never gotten around to celebrating his 40th birthday.

Men 100, to Take Helicopter Ride

CLEVELAND (U) — Joe La Barge will be 100 years old Sunday and he's going to celebrate by taking a helicopter ride.

The ride — his secret ambition — was arranged by friends. Getting up in the air is no new experience for La Barge, who still works as a caretaker in an office building here in the past he has piloted a balloon and flown a plane.

His lengthy experience also includes driving a taxi, bus, truck, streetcar, locomotive, a one-cylinder car at a world's fair and a hoist engine for a mining firm.

Egypt Sends Governor to Gaza Strip

CAIRO, Egypt (U) — The night of Egypt was represented in the Gaza Strip today by a major general designated governor, 50 military policemen, 10 officers and 12 civilian officials.

Otherwise 2,600 U. N. troops still were in the major military force in the disputed area following the arrival in Gaza City yesterday of the group sent by President Nasser to resume civilian control for Egypt.

There was no retaliation so far from Israel. Premier David Ben-Gurion had served notice his government reserved its "freedom of action" if the Egyptians took back the Gaza Strip. He said he would use "all political and security steps" to prevent the Egyptians' return.

The Israelis pulled out of Gaza last Thursday on the assumption the U. N. Emergency Force would exercise both military and civil control of the Mediterranean coastal area alongside Israel's Negev Desert.

The new Egyptian governor of Gaza, Maj. Gen. Hassan Abdel Latif, arrived late yesterday from Cairo with his 72-man escort.

A UNEF platoon was on hand to receive him, and the Arabs in Gaza hailed him with shouts of: "Long live Nasser, long live Arabism, welcome to the Egyptian administration."

U. N. Undersecretary Ralph Bunche and Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, UNEF commander, already were in Gaza when the Egyptian party arrived.

The United States, meanwhile, tried to appease Israel for the failure to keep Egypt out of Gaza. State Department press officer Lincoln White told newsmen talks would start soon on resumption of U. S. aid to the Jewish nation.

White declined to say whether resumption of aid to Egypt and Jordan also was being considered. American financial assistance for all three countries were halted when Israel attacked Egypt Oct. 29.

Yul Brynner, who earned his first money playing a guitar and singing with a group of gypsies in Paris nightclubs years ago, repeats his real-life start in "Anastasia" in which he co-stars with Ingrid Bergman and Helen Hayes. He plays his guitar and sings before the Swedish star and the CinemaScope cameras as he builds his plot to pass Miss Bergman off as the Princess Anastasia of Russia, an heiress to a 10,000,000 pound legacy.

The Twentieth Century-Fox screen version in DeLuxe color of the Broadway hit will have its local premiere on Sunday at the Saenger theater where Mr. Brynner's newly won feminine fans will have a chance to see him in a new type role. Since "The King and I" he has become America's top, romantic film star despite his bald-headed makeup.

Producer Plans New TV Show Named 'Flight'

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (U) — Flying has become a routine, commonplace pursuit of man. But we tend to forget that there's freedom of expression in flight, Alan Neuman said the other day.

As one of the producers of Wide World (NBC-TV), Neuman will attempt to bring that freedom of expression to the home screen next Sunday afternoon in a program called Flight. It will be quite a production, one of the most complex ever attempted, with about 3,500 people involved in numerous remote live television pickups of man in flight.

The program will attempt a remote pickup of a man parachuting from a plane with a camera strapped to him. If all goes well, we'll hear his comments and see the ground rushing up through the camera lens as he falls.

Another television first will be attempted on the program when a B-52 is shown refueling in the air. The F104 and F102, the nation's newest fighter planes, also will be shown in flight for the first time on the home screen.

Why do people glide? This is one of the questions Flight will try to answer.

Saturday evening the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences will present its annual Emmy Awards for exceptional contributions to television.

Here is the way the winners were selected: The Academy asked all members of TV crafts, guilds and unions to submit nominations in 29 categories. The top 20 names in each category were then sent to the same people — and five top candidates selected on the basis of popular votes. The final winners in each category was decided by a vote of 2,500 academy members.

The Business and Professional Women's Club met in regular session on Tuesday evening at the Lawson Hotel with fourteen members attending.

Legislator Gets Employees Thanks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. Sam Levine of Pine Bluff, who sponsored a state employee retirement bill that finally made the grade after four legislative sessions, got pair of gold cuff links yesterday for his efforts.

The gift was presented in the past two sessions of the Legislature to obtain a retirement system. Levine's bill applies to all state employees except those currently under retirement plans.

High Level of Taxes to Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation to continue business taxes at their present 30-billion-dollar annual level was called up in the House today for expected routine approval.

With both the Eisenhower administration and House leaders ruling out personal income tax cuts this year, there was little prospect Congress would permit a three-billion-dollar drop in the corporate and excise taxes President rates drop April 1 unless they are extended.

President Eisenhower asked Congress to extend until April 1958 the present 52 per cent income tax on corporation profits and existing federal excise, or sales, taxes on liquor, cigarettes, jewelry other consumer items.

Without the extension corporate taxes would drop to 47 per cent and excises would go back to levels in effect before the Korean war outbreak in 1950.

This year's tax revenues from all sources are expected to total around 70 billion billion dollars, of which almost half come from individual income taxes, some 30 per cent from corporation income taxes and about 13 per cent from federal excises.

Legislation Against Labor Is Foreseen

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — A top business organization leader said today Senate racketeers disclosures may lead to corrective legislation against labor such as followed certain industry sins in the 1920s.

John S. Coleman, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said I am asking labor — as a friend — if it believes it can escape from a similar fate unless it sweeps its own house.

Coleman said in remarks prepared for the Chamber's National Labor Relations Conference the general public seldom understands some of industry's regular complaints against unions for secondary boycotts and union monopoly tendencies.

But today, there is a difference, he said. Everyone understands the testimony which is now unfolding before the Senate committee (investigating racketeering practices).

Much as I regret that innocent representatives of labor should be tarred with the brush of the guilty, it is only a matter of fact that everyone understands the language of pinball racketeering, call-house arrangements and dickers between public officials and labor chieftains.

Coleman said he recalled with no embarrassment whatsoever that some management men in the 1920's misused their power and undermined confidence in the very institution of business itself.

The result was that business, as an institution, became the target of legislation that was not only designed to be corrective of management abuses but in some cases, was actually punitive in its application to those who had committed no crime of any kind.

Containing that this could happen to labor unions too, Coleman said, My hope is that labor will reach for its own broom.

He said any cleanup of organized labor should include steps to curb what he called union monopoly, compulsory union membership practices and lack of democratic union procedures.

These conferences have given him a priceless chance to create in the minds of the people an impression of him as a reasonable, patient, decent man of good will. And judging from his great popularity, he has succeeded.

Through all his conferences he has so consistently followed three policies that they look less like a state of mind than the result of deliberate decisions made before he ever held his first White House news conference Feb. 17, 1953.

These three policies are: he almost never says no comment to a question; he has carefully refrained from personal attacks on others; and he never acts like a boss.

Presidents Roosevelt and Truman used the no comment device to brush aside what they wouldn't or couldn't answer. Eisenhower the persists in giving answers even when his only answer is that he has none.

Often, even when he gets wound up, his answers are really answers. Many times, because of this rambling which often gives the appearance of avoiding a direct answer, he'd be just as enlightening by saying no comment.

By steering clear of personal attacks on others Eisenhower has given his foes and critics a minimum excuse for attacking him. This has the added effect of saving the presidency from mudslinging.

The results hegets from following this course — meaning his amazing continued popularity — would indicate he's a far better politician, although not necessarily a better president, than Truman.

He has been president through treacherous times abroad and a period of national sickness over communism at home. A news conference is full of jeopardy for a president who gets overheated and shoots from the hip.

Never has Eisenhower slipped into using an inflammatory, defiant, domineering or careless word that could cause a crisis abroad or a tempest at home. This is a tribute to his restraint and his high sense of responsibility.

It was particularly useful right after he became president when the country was sick in its division over the menace, or alleged menace, of communism at home. He led the country out of that morass by patience and reasonableness.

There are those who criticize him for not having taken an open stand against Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), then the No. 1 Red-hunter. But his admirers can point out that McCarthy and McCarthyism have faded into the background.

At his conferences his very restraint gives him the appearance of a man who believes that if people are allowed to cool off they will, and that time is a marvelous healer of open wounds.

But coupled with this is the question of his leadership. He was told at his Nov. 15, 1956, conference that he was being criticized for lack of leadership.

It was then he plainly revealed his philosophy of running the government and his concept of leadership by saying: I am not a desk-pounding type. I would rather persuade a man to go along.

There was only one other couple staying in the hotel — a middle-aged Frenchman with an ultrasmart young wife, whom Allan and Mollie christened the Bon Vivant.

SEAL OF APPROVAL—Four-foot replica, like this, of the Great Seal of the United States, will be decorative features of the Truman Library, to be dedicated at Independence, Mo., on May 1. Above Hermann F. Simon, an architectural modeler, looks over one of the clay models he made. From these, plaster casts will be made and shipped to an Indiana quarry, where they will be translated into limestone.

NAUGHTY, NAUGHTY!—Fighting bulls are supposed to charge straight forward and nearly all do. This enables the matador to show off a series of classic passes with his cape. But sometimes a bull refuses to cooperate in his own death and leaps crazily about, like the one above. So he's rated a "bad" bull for giving Matador Juan Silvetti a very bad time in Mexico City's Plaza Mexico.

Ike Does Well in Press Conference

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — After 104 presidential news conferences, President Eisenhower, who was awkward and stumbling in his early meeting with the press, has developed ease, speed and sureness.

He's still long-winded. He still manages to scramble his sentences at times. He still goes in for pompous platitudes and ringing generalities that come close to banality.

But in the perilous quicksands of these conferences he has done an excellent job of staying clear of careless or impulsive answers that would embarrass him or the government or cause needless trouble.

The one quality which has shone through all his conferences is restraint in talking of people, problems or events. This restraint may turn out to have been his greatest contribution to the presidency and history.

These conferences have given him a priceless chance to create in the minds of the people an impression of him as a reasonable, patient, decent man of good will. And judging from his great popularity, he has succeeded.

Through all his conferences he has so consistently followed three policies that they look less like a state of mind than the result of deliberate decisions made before he ever held his first White House news conference Feb. 17, 1953.

At his conferences his very restraint gives him the appearance of a man who believes that if people are allowed to cool off they will, and that time is a marvelous healer of open wounds.

But coupled with this is the question of his leadership. He was told at his Nov. 15, 1956, conference that he was being criticized for lack of leadership.

It was then he plainly revealed his philosophy of running the government and his concept of leadership by saying: I am not a desk-pounding type. I would rather persuade a man to go along.

There was only one other couple staying in the hotel — a middle-aged Frenchman with an ultrasmart young wife, whom Allan and Mollie christened the Bon Vivant.
